"A human being is a part of the whole, called by us 'Universe,' a part limited in time and space. He experiences himself, his thoughts and feelings as something separated from the rest — a kind of optical delusion of his consciousness. This delusion is a kind of prison for us, restricting us to our personal desires and to affection for a few persons nearest us. Our task must be to free ourselves from this prison by widening our circle of compassion to embrace all living creatures and the whole nature in its beauty. Nobody is able to achieve this completely, but the striving for such achievement is in itself a part of the liberation and a foundation for inner security." — Einstein

"The more I study religion the more convinced I am that man never worshipped anything but himself." — Sir Richard Burton

Why yes.... as a matter of fact I do Subsist on rocket fuel...

It's as though it was all just a lovely dream!

And it was with great pride that I reigned as king of the buffoons at P's!

No way man.

Ahh..... We certainly have loved these P's years.... mm-hmm...

May God bless and keep you always,
May your wishes all come true.
May you always do for others
Let others do for you.

May you build a ladder to the Stars

"This traditionally meant dinner dresses with sleeves and narrow long skirts, but ladies can go all out for grand black-tie occasions. Gentlemen exhibit their tailoring by the exquisiteness of their tailoring, rather than by wearing ruffles or funny colors . . .
Now you can legitimately wear the wing-collared shirts or eighteen-buttoned gloves you mistakenly think so spiffy on lesser occasions. Ladies properly wear huge skirts and plunging necklines, and gentlemen strive to look more like orchestra conductors than head waiters."
